MID-CHESHIRE College started their Intercollegiate Golf Tour campaign in encouraging fashion this week.

Dan Young shot a round of 72 to place third overall on the individual leader board in their opening group rubber at Tarporley's Portal Golf and Country Club.

His contribution helped the Hartford-based team, made up entirely of students on the college's Golf Development Course, finish second behind Cheadle and Marple. The victors' net score was 450, while Mid-Cheshire totalled 467.

Teams from Myerscough and Yale make up the Area B group, which covers the north west of England and north Wales.
